It is expected that manuscripts submitted for NWIG have not been published elsewhere and are not under review for possible publication elsewhere.

All contributions (articles) should be double-spaced throughout, with ample margins, and should be submitted in two copies. Articles accepted for publication should be submitted on computer disk as well. Electronically submitted articles are encouraged.

For spelling and punctuation, please consult the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press) and Webster's Third New International Dictionary.

Bibliographical references should be included in the text in parentheses, and should indicate author's last name, date of publication, and (if relevant) page numbers – e.g., (Teenstra 1842:12). Full bibliographical information should be listed at the end of the article as References, as in the following examples:

for books:

TEENSTRA, M.D., 1842. De negerslaven in de kolonie Suriname en de uitbreiding van het christendom onder de heidensche bevolking. Dordrecht: Lagerweij.

for edited books:

WHITTEN, NORMAN E., JR. & JOHN F. SZWED (eds.), 1970. Afro-American Anthropology. New York: Free Press.

for journal articles:

HERKOVITS, MELVILLE J., 1931. On the Provenience of the Portuguese in Saramacca Tongo. West-Indische Gids 12:545-57.

for contributions to edited books:

BASTIDE, ROGER, 1974. The Present Status of Afro-American Research in Latin America. In Sidney W. Mintz (ed.), Slavery, Colonialism, and Racism. New York: Norton, pp. 111-23.

Photos and line drawings should be submitted in Jpeg or Tiff, or in the form of glossy prints.
