

INVITATION

On Friday the 16th of March 2018, at 4.00 p.m.,
Professor R.M.A.L. Hoefte, named Professor by Special Appointment of the History of Suriname since 1873 in comparative perspective, will deliver her Inaugural Lecture, with the title:

The last convulsions of colonialism:
The Suriname experiment in the 1930s

The chair was designated on behalf of the Royal Netherlands Institute of Southeast Asian and Caribbean Studies (KITVL) / the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences (KNAW).

Prof. dr. ir. K.I.J. Maex, Rector Magnificus of the University of Amsterdam, requests the pleasure of your company in the Auditorium of the University (entrance Singel 411, corner Spui).

It is extremely difficult to find a parking space near the Auditorium. It is easy to get to the Auditorium by tram, using lines 1, 2, 4, 5, 9, 14 and 24, stop Spui.