pembicara:

Prof. Dr.
Fridus Steijlen

Researcher at KITLV/
Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

Prof. Dr. Fridus Steijlen (KITLV/VU) is one of the oral history experts in the Netherlands. Starting as an Anthropologist he became involved in several oral history projects. Many of them were related to the colonial and postcolonial history and memories. He teaches about oral history as methodology and as source. In this masterclass we invite Master (S2) and PhD-students to discuss various issues related to oral history: methodology, ethics, technical issues and all other related topics. To participate in the masterclass please submit a short motivation, a short abstract of your research and the topic that interests you most no later than 20 February 2019 to contact person's email below. Seats are limited only to maximum 20 participants.
